We hope you don't, but should you have to cancel your booking, our refund policy is as follows:

The deposit is 100% non-refundable under any circumstance.

The balance must be paid twelve weeks before the retreat start date (due Friday 1st December 2023).

Any refunds available are as below:

Four weeks before – no refund. *

Four to eight weeks before - 25% minus the non-refundable deposit. *

Eight to twelve weeks before - 50% minus the non-refundable deposit. *

More than twelve weeks before - full refund of money paid minus the non-refundable deposit.

*If the space/s left by the cancelled party can be filled by another party then a part refund of (minus the full deposit) could be available.

No exceptions can be made to this policy under any circumstances unless Heather Yoga are to cancel the event in which arrangements would be made for returning deposits. In the unlikely event this was to occur Heather Yoga are responsible for refund on the money only which has been paid by you for this retreat.

Please see notes below about other important information including your insurance.

Covid Contingency:

Due to Covid-19 and the possibility of some kind of virus, pandemic or issue causing the world to shut down - the deposit is still non-refundable, and your booking will be carried over to another date. If you have paid in full - the balance after the non-refundable deposit will be paid back to you but the deposit will be held and carried over to the new retreat dates.

Insurance:

It is a condition of this holiday that each person has personal travel insurance appropriate to activity and fitness centered holidays and cover for travel expenses in case of cancellation.

Visa:Indian Visa Is Essential to Travel!

All foreign nationals visiting India require a visa to enter India. <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in>.

UK passport holders and many other nationalities can now get an online eVisa for a stay of up to 60 days. This is the one we recommend for your retreat trip. <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in/evisa/tvoa.html>

How To Get There:

The retreat location is roughly a 60-minute taxi journey from Goa airport (Full name is Dabolim International airport) which is in South Goa. There is now a new airport in Mopa, North Goa called Manohar International Airport However this is around 2 hours 30mins away from the retreat location so we suggest you find flights that arrive into Dabolim Airport.

International charter flights and national flights arrive at Goa. Overseas charter companies offer direct flights to Goa airport including Tui from Gatwick & Manchester. <https://www.tui.co.uk>

International flights from UK to Goa/ India try site like:

www.skyscanner.net

<https://www.cheapflights.co.uk/flights/Goa/>

Or call:

www.southalltravel.com

Domestic flights fly from Mumbai, Delhi, Bangalore, Kochin and Chennai.

For domestic flights there's India companies including Jet Airways and SpiceJet and www.makemytrip.com.

Transport From Airport

Heather Yoga will organise a local taxi to collect you up from the South Goa (Dabolim only) airport and transfer to the retreat location (included in the package) if you provide us with your flight details. Taxi for your return flight is not included in the package but we can arrange it for you.

If you are going to another part of Goa first before heading to the retreat - there are Pre-pay government taxis available as you exit the airport terminal.
